

Christian Science Periodicals (Printed and Online)

Below you'll find a list of all the Christian Science periodicals, and all the different ways to read them — whether in print, online, or as a download. Many are also available in an audio version. Below are the webpages for each periodical and at the end of the list is a link to a subscription page for all products.

JSH-Online — This website is the online source for all of the Christian Science periodicals and other selected publications. The search area is a complete database of every article or testimony ever published — and provides an easy way to search for inspiring pieces. The site features the three main Christian Science magazines (The Christian Science Journal, Christian Science Sentinel, and The Herald of Christian Science), in addition to a growing list of biographies of Mary Baker Eddy. JSH-Online is subscription-based, but also features free articles that change periodically. In addition, many of the writings are available in audio format. jsh.christianscience.com

The Sentinel is a weekly publication full of articles, editorials, interviews, and firsthand accounts of healing which show in practical terms how Christian Science can bring healing to any situation. These features are written by ordinary people who share how they've found the practice of Christian Science to be spiritually enlightening and health-giving. The magazine is available by subscription, and you will also find free sample articles on the Sentinel's webpage. Mary Baker Eddy established the Sentinel in 1898 and said that it was "intended to hold guard over Life, Truth, and Love."

sentinel.christianscience.com/

The Christian Science Journal is a monthly magazine that contains in-depth articles, interviews, and verified reports of healing. It's designed to help you understand and practice the divine Principle of Christian Science. The Journal is also a detailed source of information, with complete listings of Christian Science practitioners, teachers, lecturers, churches, Reading Rooms, and more. Mary Baker Eddy established The Journal in 1883 "designed to put on record the divine Science of Truth."

This link takes you to the Journal's main web page. Scroll down for complimentary articles and information.
journal.christianscience.com/

Christian Science is a worldwide church. If you or someone you know needs to read its spiritual truths in languages other than English, The Herald of Christian Science is a powerful resource. Mary Baker Eddy established The Herald in 1903 "to proclaim the universal activity and availability of Truth." This internationally-focused magazine is available in 14 official editions including languages from Spanish to Russian to Indonesian. In addition, various individual articles from all three periodicals are available in 19 informal translations in languages that include everything from Arabic to Korean to Swahili to Romanian. This periodical is available by subscription, and you will also find free sample articles in different languages on the Herald's webpage.

herald.christianscience.com/

CSPS Subscriptions

There are many ways to get subscriptions to Christian Science periodicals: in print, online, or downloadable. This webpage provides an overview of all current subscriptions in all their formats. Enjoy exploring what works best for you.

jsh.christianscience.com/csp-subscriptions